Sinar Mas Group was established in 1962 by the legendary Chinese Indonesian entrepreneur Mr. Eka Widjaja. With over 150,000 employees, 30 billion USD assets and various investments in Asia Pacific, North America, and Europe, the group was once ranked as the largest conglomerate in Indonesia by the Forbes Magazine. The group has four core businesses in Pulp & Paper, Banking, Agribusiness and Food, and Property. Recently the group has entered high-tech industries such as telecommunication and bio-fuel energy. Since 1992, the group has established dozens of manufacturing facilities in China with a total investment exceeding 6.5 billion USD.

Listed on the Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited (SGX-ST), Asia Food & Properties Limited (AFP) operates over 300,000 hectares of palm plantation in Indonesia and is one of the world's largest palm oil producers. In China, AFP has a number of investments including palm oil refineries, edible oil products, instant noodles and snack food. The business unit is actively investigating diversification opportunities. On the property side, AFP has numerous investments in Indonesia, Singapore, USA, and China, including the landmark 50-story Shanghai Bund Center (2005 top 10 office buildings in China), the luxurious 5-star Westin Shanghai (2006 The World's Best Hotels by Euromoney Institutional Investor), and Ningbo Shining Gold Commercial Center. The business unit is currently expediting land development projects in Sichuan, Guangdong, Jiangsu and Liaoning provinces, while strategically seeking new breakthroughs.
